

2025-2026 Parent Contributor Tax Filing Status Verification

Student's Information

Last Name	First Name	Middle Name	Student VIP ID
Student's Email Address			Telephone Number

Parent's Information

The parent contributor indicated on your 2025-2026 FAFSA that they did not and will not file a U.S. tax return for reasons other than low income for the 2023 tax year. Per federal regulations, the university is required to treat this as conflicting information and will require additional information and documentation to be provided by the parent contributor to resolve the conflicting information. A list of sources and income earned during the 2023 tax year, copies of the document(s), and a reasonable explanation from the parent contributor as to why they are not required to file a 2023 U.S. tax return.

Source and income* received during January 2023 through December 2023:

Source	Earned Income for 2023 tax year
Wages, salary, tips (W-2, box 1)	$
Self-employment income	$
Commissions	$
Bonuses	$
Long-term disability benefits (claimed before reaching minimum retirement age)	$
Union strike benefits	$
Deferred retirement compensation	$
Honorarium	$
Income from a job where your employer did not withhold tax	$
Total	$

*" Earned income includes all the taxable income and wages you get from working for someone else, yourself, or from a business or farm you own." For more information, visit the IRS website here.

Reasonable explanation:

By signing this document, I certify that all the information reported on it is true and accurate. If I purposely give false or misleading information on this document, it will be cause for denial or repayment of financial aid and I may also be fined, sentenced to jail, or both.

 Student's Signature Date

 Parent Contributor Signature (Required) Date